THANK YOU: "I want to thank everyone for all the flowers, food, cards, phone calls, words of encouragement, and most importantly all the prayers. This has definitely been a very trying time for myself & family, but I felt a precious peace that I know came from all the prayers. I am so very blessed to be part of such a caring, loving, giving, and compassionate church. I do ask that you continue to pray as we continue this journey."
- Pam Kruse

THANK YOU: "I can't say thank you enough for the prayers, texts, call, and messages I've received. It was nice to have some church family at the funeral. Thank you to those who were able to help cook the meal/dessert for Friday. It was really good and I was able to actually eat. Continued prayers appreciated."
- Brittany Harrison (Family of Doris Edrington)

Mission Mentions for May

Pray for the church in Puerto Rico. Though several hurricanes over the past few years have displaced the people of Puerto Rico, the Church of the Nazarene has remained a haven where the love of God and of His people is shared. Pray for the church and for God's help as they work to plant several new churches across the land.
