Mission Focus

Hong Kong was occupied by the British in 1841 and was formally ceded by China the following year. On December 19, 1984, an agreement signed by China and the UK set in motion a shift that eventually led to Hong Kong becoming the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (SAR) of the Republic of China on July 1, 1997. This special arrangement was meant to provide autonomy to Hong Kong in all matters except foreign affairs and defense, that would last for 50 years. Hong Kong has become a financial capital in Eastern Asia. The work of the Church of the Nazarene was officially begun in 1974, and today has 223 members, 2 fully organized churches, and 3 ordained ministers. Pray for the effective witness of our Hong Kong churches in a time of political change, as all as wisdom, boldness, and perseverance for our Hong Kong pastors to faithfully lead the church.
