Mission Focus

Jamaica was one of the islands discovered by Christopher Columbus in 1494. Settled by the Spanish, the British seized the island in 1655 and slavery was abolished in 1834. Jamaica increased its independent from Britain, but joined the British Caribbean colonies in forming the Federation of the West Indies. In 1962, Jamaica withdrew from this federation to gain full independence, and the Church of the Nazarene officially established its work in 1966. It is estimated that over 45% of the population in Jamaica is under the age of 25. Please pray for a revival in the 34 fully organized churches, and for more laborers who are totally surrendered to God.
