Portugal (Eurasia Region) is the oldest nation-state in Europe. Its defined borders have not changed since the 12th century. During the 15th and 16th centuries, its maritime power and influence brought great wealth from its colonies. However, with the destruction of Lisbon in a massive earthquake in 1755, followed by occupation during the Napoleonic Wars and the independence struggle of Brazil (its wealthiest colony) in 1822, Portugal struggled to recover. That struggle took the country through years of upheaval and unrest under repressive governments following a revolution that deposed its monarchy in 1910. In 1973, the Church of the Nazarene began its work here. In 1974, a left-wing military coup made way for broad democratic reforms. NATO, and a member of the European Union since 1986. More than 40% of Portugal's population is between the ages of 25 and 54 years, which prompts an energetic culture. Please pray for the Church of the Nazarene in Portugal as it tries imaginative new approaches to ministry, including church buildings, which will breathe new life into work there.
