Mission Focus

Have you ever asked the question, "Could God use me in His mission?" In June, the 150 participants from 42 countries who joined the Discover Missions event in Nairobi, Kenya, came asking that question. And God answered them with a divine "YES!" Prayer is so important to the process of discerning one's call, nurturing it, preparing to "go," and deployment. NMI prays for next generation missionaries, as it prays for those currently serving. Missionaries pray for those who will replace them in the next generation. You can pray, too! Do you? It is one way in which everyone can join God in His mission to our broken world.
